

StructureLite™ Seat Foam

Utilizing the strength of polyurethane and expanded bead foams, the Woodbridge portfolio of structural foam products known as StructureLite™ are designed to improve vehicle safety, strength, acoustics and comfort.

Applications

- + Seating Systems

Advantages

- + Significant mass savings opportunities
- + Total seat system and tooling cost reduction
- + Applicable for both complete cushion and back modules
- + Improves trim assembly process and safety
- + Anatomically formed to improve comfort
- + Enhances occupant safety through Integration of anti-submarine and energy management properties

RELATED SOLUTIONS

